then there were the stories of folks cured with elevated iodine intake.

lesbian, gay, and transgender parents have been deemed unfit for being antisocial, mentally ill, and lacking in the moral fiber of traditional family values required to raise an upstanding citizen